

THE COURTS.

Suit for Tom Fields' Salary as Corporation Attorney.

Central Branch, Union Pacific Railroad.

AN OLD ARMORY SUIT.

Yesterday Anson Morey, a cigar manufacturer, doing business at Shagbush, was charged before Commissioner Phelps with having removed from his factory 300 cigars without the same being stamped. He was held in $1,000 bail for examination.

Charles Kelly, No. 203 Front street, and Owen O'Rourke, Grand street, were held yesterday by Commissioner Shields to await the action of the Grand Jury on charges of selling liquor by retail without paying the special tax required by law. They gave bail to appear when called on to answer the accusation.

In the United States Circuit Court yesterday Judge Benedict resumed the trial of criminal causes. Rockwell Tyler, a deputy collector of internal revenue, has been indicted for embezzling about $800 of public money and for failing to give his accounts monthly. Defendant's counsel made a motion to quash the indictment. Counsel for the government opposed, after which the Court took the papers and reserved its decision.

The trial of Edward McLaughlin, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Judge Brady, for the alleged murder of James Stewart, the facts of which have already been published in the Herald, was resumed yesterday. After the conclusion of the testimony, which occupied but a short time, Mr. Charles W. Brooke summed up in a lengthy and able argument for the prisoner. He was followed by District Attorney Phelps, succeeding which Judge Brady charged the jury, the charge, as usual, being clear, succinct and impartial.

In the suit of John B. Greene against the city to recover for laying out drains in Madison avenue and other up-town streets, judgment was yesterday rendered in favor of the city. The costs were taxed. The latter were fixed at $2,500. This makes the entire judgment about $7,000.

Judge Donohue, in Supreme Court, Special Term, yesterday granted an injunction against the Sheriff, restraining him from selling the household furniture of Mrs. Waite Willard. The property had been seized by the creditors of her late husband, and it was shown that the ownership was vested exclusively in her, and hence the injunction.

Well Brothers & Dreyfus, who caused the arrest of their defaulting bookkeeper, when it is to be distinctly understood that they do not intend to abandon the prosecution. On the contrary, they are determined that the law shall take its course and have peremptorily refused to compromise the case, as they are naturally unwilling to compound a felony.

The suit brought by Edward A. Darragh against Joseph McKim to recover $25,000 damages for slander in stating that plaintiff set fire to his hotel at Far Rockaway, the particulars of which have already been published in the Herald, was concluded yesterday before Judge Freeman, of the Superior Court, and resulted in a verdict for $50 for the plaintiff.

A notice of its pendancy was filed yesterday in the County Clerk's office in the foreclosure suits brought by the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company against the Erie Railway Company. The particulars of these suits have already been fully published in the Herald, and it is therefore unnecessary to recapitulate them. The notice is in the ordinary form, describing in general terms the property of the Erie Railway Company.

Following the insolvency of the Market Savings Bank John H. Platt, assignee of the creditors, brought suit against James Van Name, the former president of the bank, to recover moneys which it was alleged he had taken from the funds of the bank and appropriated to his own use. The suit came to trial yesterday before Judge Van Vorst, holding Supreme Court, Circuit, Part 3. The evidence showed that the moneys alleged to have been taken were withdrawn by checks given by Van Name on the Park Bank, in which the Market Bank kept its deposits, and passed to Wall Street brokers, who placed them to the personal credit of Van Name, to be invested in stock speculations. The trial terminated with a verdict of $56,198 in favor of the plaintiff.

TOM C. FIELDS' SALARY.

Isaac Wood, as assignee of Thomas C. Fields, brought suit some time since against the city to recover about $17,000 claimed to be due Mr. Fields for salary as Corporation Attorney. The assignment was for money loaned Fields, and is limited by the city to be valid. The case was tried yesterday before Judge Van Vorst, in Supreme Court, Circuit, Part 3. Mr. Granville P. Hayes appeared for the plaintiff and Wheeler H. Peckham for the city. The case depended on three grounds—first, that Fields was a member of Assembly and Corporation Attorney, and that the holding of one office vacated the other; second, that there was no appropriation from which to pay the amount claimed, and third, that the city had an offset in a counter-claim against Fields for $500,000 money advanced to the city for the purchase of the Central Branch Union Pacific Railroad.

CENTRAL BRANCH UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

Yesterday the case of Tredwell vs. Pomeroy et al. was again for trial in the Special Term of Supreme Court, before Judge Van Hook. This action, it will be remembered, was brought by the plaintiff, Tredwell, to compel an accounting of the assets arising from the contract for the building of the Central Branch Union Pacific Railroad. Mr. Samuel C. Mount appeared for the plaintiff and pressed the case for trial; but the defendants, represented by D. T. Walden and Henry Day, were not yet ready. They were given leave to continue their affidavits and comply with the usual requisites of the law. The case was continued for five months for the purpose of enabling the parties to get their accounts in order. The court was adjourned until the 22d of July.

AN OLD ARMORY SUIT.

Among the numerous affidavits for rent of armories against the city was one by Corporal Burdett, to recover $51,000 for rent of a building on Broadway, No. 22, between Sixth and Seventh avenues, used as an armory by the Eighth regiment, National Guard. The case came to trial yesterday, before Judge Van Vorst, in Supreme Court, Circuit. The defense interposed on behalf of the city was that the statute requiring an application to be made for an armory by the officer in command of the regiment, and that the building was not used as an armory, but as a warehouse for the city's property.

TOMBS POLICE COURT.

Before Judge Duffy.

ROBERT H. BOOMBAKE.

Max Mustener, a native of Posen, Germany, was arraigned at this Court yesterday, on complaint of Robert Brady, of No. 5 Broadway, who charged that while stopping at the Rheinhardt Hotel, Greenwich street, the prisoner, who was a roommate of his, robbed him of $50 worth of clothing. Randolph Wygon, of No. 133 Allen street, made a similar charge against Mustener. The prisoner pleaded not guilty, but was held in $500 to answer on each charge.

WASHINGTON PLACE POLICE COURT.

Before Judge Hicks.

MORE EAST RIVER HIGHWAYMEN.

Between two and three o'clock of the morning of the 19th of June Mr. Ewald Bolenius, of No. 207 East Houston street, was attacked by a man named James G. Twiss, on the corner of Ludlow and Stanton streets, who knocked him on the head with a bill and after robbing him of $175 in money and a watch, fled. Bolenius followed the thief up Ludlow street for two blocks, and overtaking him at last knocked him down, where he recovered his watch and a part of the chain which was in Twiss' hand. While Bolenius was searching Twiss for the pocket-money containing the $175, two other men came up. One of them, who was named John Healy, placed the case in the hands of Detective Von Gerichten, of the Central office, and that officer arrested Twiss on Wednesday night. The prisoner was arraigned before Judge Hicks yesterday, and was committed in $1,000 bail to answer.

LEAD PIPE BURGLARS.

On the 21st of June Mrs. Eleanor Bishop entered the unoccupied house No. 40 West Twenty-seventh street and discovered a man and two boys in the act of carrying away five brass chandeliers and a quantity of lead pipe valued in all at $209. At the approach of Mrs. Bishop the three ran off, but she endeavored to intercept the progress of one of the thieves, who was carrying a large box. She was in the face. Mrs. Bishop's cries attracted the attention of officer McCarde, of the Twenty-ninth precinct, who was on duty. He followed the thieves into the house and found two boys named James Robinson and John Oates secreted in the cellar. The man who struck Mrs. Bishop succeeded in making his escape. Judge Hicks yesterday held the prisoners in $500 bail each to answer on charge of burglary.

LARCENY ON SHIPBOARD.

A man named William Bush was arraigned on a charge of stealing a watch worth $76 from Clarence Knowlton, of Carleton, N. Y. Knowlton, who was working in the hold of the bark Six Brothers, lying at pier 54 North River, on Tuesday afternoon, said his watch containing his watch, on the vessel. While he was working Bush came down in the hold, saying that he had been given permission to take the watch. He took it, and immediately after Bush's departure Knowlton missed his watch, and he called out to the man and told him to get it. Bush, who was yesterday committed the prisoner in $1,000 bail to answer.

FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET COURT.

Before Judge Kassire.

A FORGIVING WIFE.

Mrs. Martha Sprout, of No. 806 First avenue, whose premature confinement was caused by her husband's brutal treatment, and who was, after her confinement, thrown by him out of a third story window, was brought yesterday from the Charity Hospital, on "Blackwell's Island," by Roundabout Street, where she was confined, and recovered from her injuries. She was called upon by the Court to testify against her husband, who was charged with the crime. She testified that she was thrown out of the window by her husband, and that she was confined in the Charity Hospital. She was committed in $1,000 bail to answer.
